

Note: If you were involved in an vehicle accident and report it, regardless of who was at fault, or the outcome of any traffic accident investigation, you must submit a Tennessee Department of Safety Financial Responsibility Report within (20) days. Failure to do so will result in the suspension of your driver's license.